

TESTS for Bootstrap Grammar

by Jean M. Samis
www.bootstrapgrammar.ca

Test 1: Chapters 1 and 2 (open book)

Diagram the following sentences:

1. Bears love huckleberries.
2. Grandma's cat likes dogs.
3. Six Sutters played professional hockey.
4. My best friend has a good rodeo horse.
5. The wildlife biologists found the wolves' den.

Correct the following sentences by adding or deleting ' or 's where necessary.
One sentence is correct.

6. My boss son bought a used truck.
7. He likes it's colour.
8. He replaced the trucks four tires.
9. His old truck gets poor gas mileage.
10. Your's gets better mileage.

Test 2: Chapters 3 and 4

Diagram the following sentences:

1. Fall is our hunting season.

2. Everyone hunts elk here.

3. Hunters always wear their camo clothes.

4. They prepare very carefully.

5. The wild meat is really healthy.

Circle the correct word:

6. Ken is a real/really good hunter.
7. He stalks game real/really good/well.
8. He also shoots good/well.
9. Its/It's not easy to get an elk.
10. You must not blow your/you're elk bugle too often.
11. You need good hunting partners/partner's.
12. You should remember your fathers/father's advice.
13. Good hunters always share there/their meat.

Test 3: Chapters 5 and 6

Correct the following sentences:

1. There are three kinds of bears in Canada, black bears, grizzly bears and polar bears.
2. The polar bears in Churchill, Manitoba, is a big tourist attraction.
3. You should of seen them.
4. The grizzlies either live in the Rocky Mountains or along the West Coast.
5. There's black bears in all 10 provinces.
6. Some people think we have to many black bears.
7. Other people say we are taking the black bears' habitat, consequently they are coming into our towns.
8. A mother bear with cubs presents a danger to you and I.
9. We need to make lots of noise in the bush and the bears will avoid us.

Test 4: Chapters 1-6

Correct these sentences:

1. My brother did good in his college classes.
2. One horse lost it's shoe during the race.
3. Who's horse is it?
4. The Niedermayer's are from Cranbrook.
5. There team won the Stanley Cup in 2007.
6. It's to cold to ride our bikes today.
7. Who will drive Scarlett and I to school?
8. We need a ride, otherwise we will be late.
9. You could of taken the bus.
10. It's a real nice day.

11. There's long lineups at border crossings on holidays.
12. One of our friends are in two choirs.
13. We have both students from France and Quebec.
14. They're taking a 3 month English course.
15. Attention campers; Please don't feed the wildlife.
16. Your finished!

Answers to Test 1:

1. Bears | love | huckleberries

2. cat | likes | dogs
Grandma's

3. Sutters | played | hockey
Six professional

4. friend | has | horse
My best a good rodeo

5. biologists | found | den
The wildlife the wolves'

6. My boss' son bought a used truck.
7. He likes its colour.
8. He replaced the truck's four tires.
9. His old truck gets poor gas mileage.
10. Yours gets better mileage.

Answers to Test 2:

1.

Fall		is		season
				our hunting
2.

Everyone		hunts		elk
		here
3.

Hunters		wear		clothes
		always		their camo
4.

They		prepare carefully very 5.

meat		is		healthy
The wild				really

6. Ken is a really good hunter.
7. He stalks game really well.
8. He also shoots well.
9. It's not easy to get an elk.
10. You must not blow your elk bugle too often.
11. You need good hunting partners.
12. You should remember your father's advice.
13. Good hunters always share their meat.

Answers to Test 3:

1. There are three kinds of bears in Canada: black bears, grizzly bears and polar bears.
2. The polar bears in Churchill, Manitoba, are a big tourist attraction.
3. You should have seen them.
4. The grizzlies live either in the Rocky Mountains or along the West Coast.
5. There are black bears in all 10 provinces.
6. Some people think we have too many black bears.
7. Other people say we are taking the black bears' habitat; consequently, they are coming into our towns.
8. A mother bear with cubs presents a danger to you and me.
9. We need to make lots of noise in the bush, and the bears will avoid us.

Answers to Test 4:

1. My brother did well in his college classes.
2. One horse lost its shoe during the race.
3. Whose horse is it?
4. The Niedermayers are from Cranbrook.
5. Their team won the Stanley Cup in 2007.
6. It's too cold to ride our bikes today.
7. Who will drive Scarlett and me to school?
8. We need a ride; otherwise, we will be late.
9. You could have taken the bus.
10. It's a really nice day.
11. There are long lineups at border crossings on holidays.
12. One of our friends is in two choirs.
13. We have students from both France and Quebec.
14. They're taking a 3-month English course.
15. Attention campers: Please don't feed the wildlife.
16. You're finished!